

The Iowa Bandmasters Association Endowment Fund

Iowa Bandmasters Association Endowment Fund has provided the following:

- $1,000 annually from the Robert W. and Dorothea Dean Endowment to promote concert bands and chamber music at the state conference.
- Financial support for additional selective events at the State Conference.
- Projects beyond the State Conference as approved by the Board of Directors.
- Funding for the Past Presidents Video Archives Project.
- $7,500 annually to students through the Major Landers Scholarship Fund.
- The Literature Recording Project to make possible performance models for large group contest.
- Updated computer software used to test Major Landers candidates.
- Management of the Risk Contingency Fund, to self-insure against catastrophic loss.

Have you considered a bequest to the Iowa Bandmasters Association through your estate, insurance, or other assets?

For more information, please contact the Endowment Fund chair. Thank you.

ggross@isunet.net

Endowment Fund Committee

Gene Gross, chair (SC)
John Aboud, secretary (NC)
Doug Herbon, treasurer (NE)
Cheryl Crandell (NW)
Myron Welch (SE)
Chuck Teutsch (SW)

Iowa Bandmasters Association Endowment Fund

Investing In the Future of Iowa Bands and Students

The Purpose

The Endowment Fund was established to receive and administer bequests, estates, insurance, memorials and other assets, to be perpetual and perpetuating. The purpose of the Endowment Fund is to financially support the purposes of the Iowa Bandmasters Association.

The Goals

- Promote the continued quality of educational opportunities offered at the annual state conference.
- Through the Major Landers Scholarships, recognize and support talented young people interested in becoming band directors.
- Support documentation of the living legacy of present members that future members may learn about and understand the purposes of the Iowa Bandmasters Association.
- Solicit gifts and/or bequests from members and friends to commemorate the memory of IBA members.
- Maintain a record of deceased members who are memorialized through contributions given in their names to the Endowment Fund.
- Recognize those individuals, groups, businesses, or organizations who contribute to the Endowment Fund.
- Increase awareness among members of the purposes of the Iowa Bandmasters Association Endowment Fund.
- Preserve and enhance the value of the Endowment Fund to better support, in perpetuity, the purposes of the Iowa Bandmasters Association.

Contributions and Deductibility

The Iowa Bandmasters Association is a non-profit corporation. All contributions are tax deductible. All gifts will be confirmed by letter for tax purposes by the Endowment Fund. Contributions may include securities, bequests, estates, memorials, insurance, and other assets.

Would you care to donate to the IBA Endowment Fund?

Would you like to contribute to the education of a young director through Major Landers Scholarships?

Would you prefer to contribute in memory of a deceased member of IBA?

Do you have a director, an individual, a group or an organization you wish to honor?

If so, please fill in the requested information on the adjoining page, indicate your preference, and mail with your contribution to the address below.

Please make checks payable to:
IBA Endowment Fund.

Please mail the form and your contribution to:

Gene Gross, Chair
IBA Endowment Fund
1520 Reagan Drive
Ames, IA 50010

Your Name _____

Address _____

Telephone _____

_____ This is my gift to the IBA Endowment Fund.

_____ This is my gift to the IBA Endowment Fund for Major Landers Scholarships.

_____ This is my gift in memory of Robert W. and Dorothea Dean in support of concert band and chamber music.

_____ This is my gift to the IBA Endowment Fund in memory of:

_____ This my gift to the IBA Endowment Fund in honor of:

Amount of gift: _____